INVOLVED EMPLOYEES' STATEMENTS:

Deputy Kason Barraclough told Homicide investigators that on September 23, 2002, he was assigned to a two-person unit, Unit 217E. This unit is assigned as an overlap car working the hours of [redacted] hours providing police service to the Florence District of Los Angeles County. Deputy Barraclough's partner for the shift was Deputy Jason Schreiner. Deputy Schreiner was the driver and he was the bookman.

While he and Deputy Schreiner were on patrol in the area of 82nd Street and Compton Avenue, and while making a pedestrian stop, Deputy Schreiner drew his attention to three males south of their location. The males were riding bicycles west bound across Compton Avenue, and onto the school grounds of "Drew Middle School." Seeing that the males were entering the closed school campus, they dismissed their pedestrian stop, and began to follow them.

Deputy Barraclough said as they followed the males through the parking lot, initially the males were approximately thirty to forty yards ahead of their radio car. As they followed the males, they turned south onto an access road, located within the school grounds. Deputy Barraclough observed two of the males riding together, to the right of the patrol car (the bookman's side of the radio car). The third male was peddling his bicycle faster and away from the other two males. The third male was on the east side of the patrol car (the driver's side of the radio car). As he focused his attention on the two males on the bookman's side of the patrol car, Deputy Schreiner focused his attention on the single rider. The single bike rider was later identified as Subject [redacted] The other two riders were identified as Witness [redacted] and Witness [redacted]

As they continued to follow the males, Deputy Barraclough heard Deputy Schreiner tell him that the single male rider had a gun. He said that he immediately focused his attention on Subject [redacted] where he saw a blue steel handgun in his right hand. Subject [redacted] held onto the gun as he also held onto the handle bar of the bicycle. As the patrol car pulled up just behind Subject [redacted] Subject [redacted] jumped off his bike. After jumping off his bike, he ran eastbound toward the classrooms on the school campus. The other two males continued to ride their bicycles south on the access road.

Deputy Barraclough said that Deputy Schreiner stopped the patrol car. When he (Deputy Barraclough) exited the patrol car, he removed his duty weapon from its holster and ran to the rear of the patrol car. From that point, he began directing verbal commands at Subject [redacted] to stop and drop the gun. At this point, Deputy Barraclough was parallel with Deputy Schreiner. Subject [redacted] ignored his commands and continued running eastbound toward the school. He said that he and Deputy Schreiner left their position from behind the patrol car, stepped onto the curb and began following Subject [redacted] Deputy Schreiner was to his right and approximately ten feet away. They continued to yell for Subject [redacted] to stop and drop the gun. As Subject [redacted] continued to ignore their commands to stop and drop the weapon, Deputy Barraclough could still see the gun in his right hand. Subject [redacted] continued running until he reached a concrete wall, approximately twenty feet away.

When Subject [redacted] reached the wall, he (Subject [redacted] turned to his left, now almost facing Deputy Barraclough. As Subject [redacted] turned, he began to raise his gun at waist level, pointing it at Deputy Barraclough and Schreiner. Deputy Barraclough said at the moment Subject [redacted] raised and pointed the gun, he believed he was about to shoot him and Deputy Schreiner. He said he and Deputy Schreiner fired at Subject [redacted] striking him several times. Deputy Barraclough said he fired at Subject [redacted] approximately five times and believes he and Deputy Schreiner began firing at [redacted] approximately at the same time. He said that he could hear Deputy Schreiner firing his weapon because he uses a forty-five caliber, and it produces a much louder sound when fired.

After firing at Subject [redacted] Deputy Barraclough saw him drop his gun, take a few steps and fall to the ground. Deputy Barraclough took a few steps back, because he was concerned that the other two individuals, who had continued riding their bikes on the access road may have doubled back after hearing the gunshots. He told Deputy Schreiner to keep an eye out for those guys while he covered Subject [redacted] While he was covering Subject [redacted] Deputy Schreiner advised SCC and Century Station of the Deputy Involved Shooting via his handheld radio. After Deputy Schreiner requested assistance and advised responding units of the two outstanding individuals, Deputy Barraclough approached Subject [redacted] who was lying on the ground. As Deputy Schreiner provided cover, he approached [redacted] Deputy Barraclough saw that the gun [redacted] pointed at him and Deputy Schreiner was lying on the ground in approximately the same spot where [redacted] pointed it at them and they fired. After Subject [redacted] was struck, he took a few steps back (he was approximately ten feet away from the gun). Deputy Barraclough said that he then approached [redacted] and handcuffed him. While placing the handcuffs on [redacted] said, "Why did you shoot me, I wasn't gonna shoot you, I was gonna toss it." He said that [redacted] then yelled at him to get an ambulance. After they handcuffed Subject [redacted] Deputy Barraclough said that he saw that the gun was an old blue steel revolver with no grips.

Deputy Barraclough said that shortly after the shooting, the other two individuals identified as [redacted] MH/[redacted] and [redacted] MH/[redacted] returned to the area. When they returned, they were detained by other Century Station personnel. He said that paramedics arrived at the scene within minutes and treated [redacted] for three gunshot wounds. They stabilized and transported [redacted] to Martin Luther King Drew Medical Center for further treatment.

Deputy Jason Schreiner told Homicide investigators that on September 23, 2002, he was assigned to a two-person unit, Unit 217E. This unit is assigned as an overlap car working the hours of [redacted] hours providing police service to the Florence District of Los Angeles County. Deputy Schreiner's partner for the shift was Deputy Kason Barraclough. Deputy Schreiner was the driver and Deputy Barraclough was the bookman.

Deputy Schreiner said that he was driving his assigned patrol car at a slow pace, south on Compton Avenue approaching 83rd Street. As he approached 83rd Street Deputy Schreiner and his partner saw a male Hispanic walking in the street. The male was waking near the southwest corner of 83rd Street and Compton Avenue. As they were about to contact the male, they saw three male Hispanics riding bicycles. The three males come out from the east west alley between 83rd Street and 84th Street traveling west. The three males were approximately 50 to 100 yards away. As the males began to turn north toward the deputies, they looked at them with surprised looks on their faces. They immediately changed their direction and began to ride their bikes west through the parking lot of Drew Middle School. Because the school was closed and all the gates are normally locked at that time of night, coupled with the surprised look on the three males' faces, he and Deputy Barraclough decided to follow them.

As they followed the males in their marked patrol car, they could see them continually looking back at them. As Deputy Schreiner turned the patrol car south onto the access road leading onto the school grounds, he saw two of the males riding on the west side of the road. The Subject (later identified as Subject [redacted] was riding on the east side. He said that Subject [redacted] was peddling extremely hard and continued to look back at their approaching patrol car. The other two males were also peddling, however they veered off to the right (west) in what might have been a move to distance themselves from Subject [redacted] Deputy Schreiner said as he followed Subject [redacted] and the other two males, he had his high beams on. He said that he and Deputy Barraclough were also using their spot lights to illuminate the males. The lighting gave him an opportunity clearly to see Subject [redacted] and his hands.

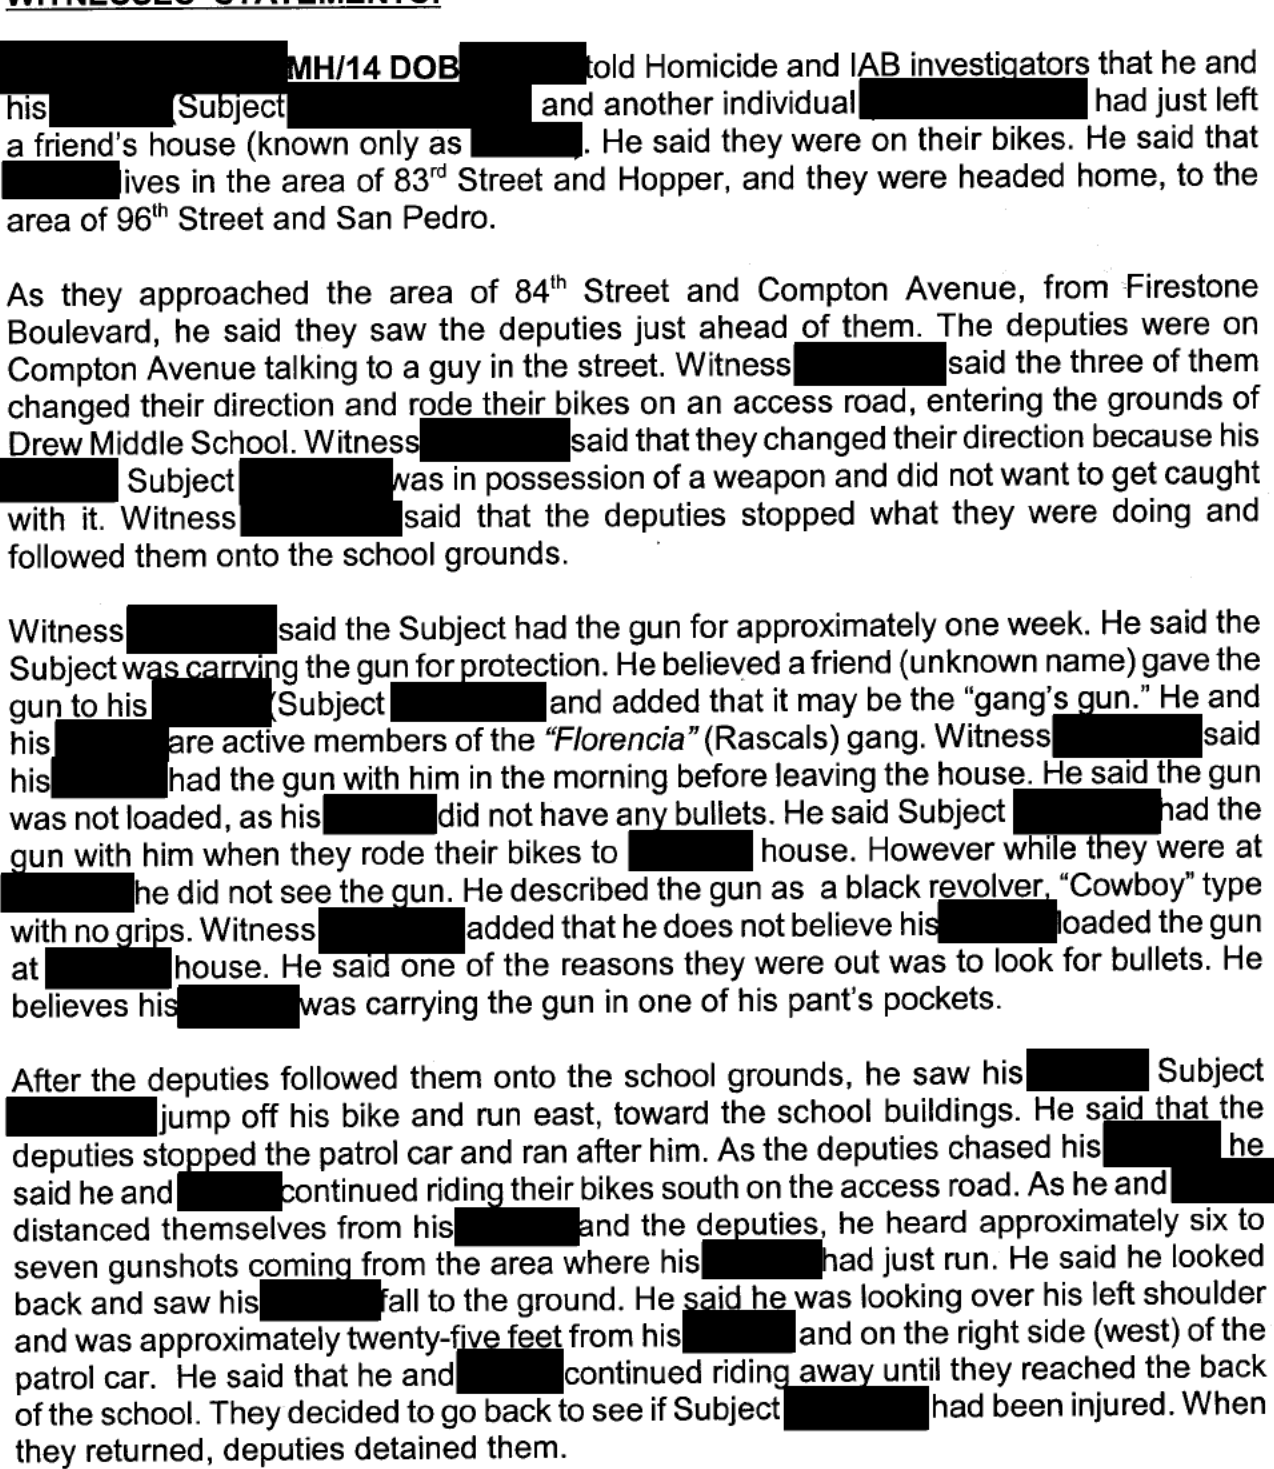

Deputy Schreiner said they were approximately twenty to twenty-five yards behind Subject [redacted] when he saw [redacted] right hand come off the handle bar and move toward his waist area. He said that [redacted] right shoulder dipped and he removed a Black revolver from his waist area. At that moment, Deputy Schreiner yelled to his partner, "He's got a gun, he's got a gun." He said Subject [redacted] continued riding the bike and holding the gun in his right hand on the access road. As he followed [redacted] he removed his weapon from its holster. He said that he continued to follow [redacted] and when [redacted] was between his driver's door and the front fender he yelled, "Stop, stop put the gun down." Rather than stopping, [redacted] jumped off his bike and began to run.

As Subject [redacted] ran east toward the school, the other two males continued to ride their bikes south on the access road. Deputy Schreiner said that he parked the patrol car and exited. Deputy Barraclough had also exited from the passenger side and had now joined him by the trunk of the patrol car. He said that both he and Deputy Barraclough had their weapons drawn. He recalls that Deputy Barraclough was worried about the other two males, while his attention was focused on Subject [redacted] As the other two continued to ride away, Deputy Barraclough now focused his attention on the armed [redacted] Deputy Barraclough yelled, "Stop, drop the gun." Subject [redacted] continued to run ignoring his commands. Subject [redacted] continued running until he reached the corner of the building. When reached the corner of the building, he turned to his left, and simultaneously begun to raise the gun with his right hand. Fearing that Subject [redacted] was going to shoot him and his partner, Deputy Schreiner said that he fired several rounds from his duty weapon. He added that Deputy Barraclough fired his duty weapon simultaneously. Deputy Schreiner said he continued firing until Subject [redacted] hit the ground. He added he believed he fired his weapon five times.

> Homicide Investigator's Note: Deputy Schreiner described Subject [redacted] holding the weapon at approximately waist level when he pointed it at them and believes there was approximately twenty yards between them at the time of the shooting.
